Grounds for Appeal

The only grounds on which an owner may appeal, and the only grounds on which the Tribunal may order the Registrar to release the motor vehicle are:

Select all that apply:

- (a) that the motor vehicle that is impounded was stolen at the time it was detained in order to be impounded;
- (b) that the driver's licence of the driver of the motor vehicle at the time it was detained in order to be impounded was not then under suspension;
- (b.1) that the driver's licence of the driver of the motor vehicle at the time it was detained in order to be impounded did not have a condition prohibiting the driver from driving a motor vehicle without an ignition interlock device;
- (c) that the owner of the motor vehicle exercised due diligence in attempting to determine that the driver's licence of the driver of the motor vehicle at the time it was detained in order to be impounded was not then under suspension; or
- (d) that the impoundment will result in exceptional hardship.

I am filing my appeal within 15 days after the day the vehicle was detained:
