Special Property Tax Classes

What are special property tax classes?

The special property tax classes are farm, managed forest, and conservation land. Property in a special property tax class may qualify for a reduced rate of taxation.

To have your property classified as a special property type, your property has to be assigned to this category by the appropriate Program Administrator:

- Farm Property Class Tax Rate Program: Eligible farmlands may be classified under the Farm Property Class and taxed at a reduced rate. For information about the farm property class tax rate program or the process of filing a Request for Reconsideration (RFR), contact the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs at 1-877-424-1300.
- Managed Forest Tax Incentive Program: Eligible properties may be classified under the Managed Forest Property Class and taxed at a reduced rate. For information about the managed forest tax incentive program or the process of filing a RFR, please contact the Managed Forest Tax Incentive Program, Ministry of Natural Resources and Forest at 1-855-866-3847 or by e-mail: MFTIP@ontario.ca.
- Conservation Land Tax Incentive Program: Eligible properties may be classified under the Conservation Land Property Class and that portion of the property will be 100 per cent tax exempt. For information about the conservation land tax incentive program or the process of filing a RFR, please contact the Conservation Land Tax incentive Program, Ministry of Natural Resources and Forestry at 1-800-268-8959 or by e-mail: CLTIP@ontario.ca.

What is the dispute process?

If you believe that your residential, farm, managed forest or conservation land property has been assessed incorrectly, you must file a RFR with the corresponding program administrator, or the Municipal Property Assessment Corporation (MPAC) for residential matters. If you are not happy with the outcome of this process, you can file an appeal with the ARB. The deadline for appealing to the ARB is 90 days from the completion of the RFR process.

What is the cost to file?

Filing an RFR with the Program Administrator or MPAC is free. The required non-refundable fee for filing an appeal with the ARB is $132.50 for properties classified as farm, managed forest or conservation land. The required non-refundable fee for filing an appeal with the ARB is $318 for properties classified as commercial or industrial.

How do I file my appeal for my farm, managed forest or conservation land property?

You can file your appeal online using E File or by printing the form and filling it out. There is a $10 discount when E Filing. Please fill out both the ARB Property Assessment Appeal form and the Special Tax Class form if not using the E File service.
