

If you have been named as a respondent or affected person in an Application made by the Ontario Human Rights Commission (the Commission) (Form 7) to the Human Rights Tribunal of Ontario you may respond by completing this Response to an Application by the Ontario Human Rights Commission (Form 8).

If you do not deliver and file a completed Form 8 in accordance with the Tribunal's Rules, you may be deemed to have accepted all the allegations in the application. The Tribunal may not send you any further notices and may proceed to deal with the application without any input from you, based only on the materials filed.

Within 45 days of the filing of the response(s), the Tribunal will convene a case conference with all the parties and affected persons to discuss the conduct of the proceeding.

Follow these steps to respond:

1. Fill out this Form 8.
2. Deliver a copy of this Form 8 to the Commission and any other parties or identified affected persons named in the application.
3. Complete a Statement of Delivery (Form 23).
4. File this Form 8 and Form 23 with the Tribunal.

A completed response must be delivered and filed with the Tribunal no later than 60 days after Form 7 was delivered to you.

Responding to the Allegations in the Application

Please summarize the facts and defences that support your response to this application. See the Respondent's Guide. If you are submitting your response on paper and need more space, please add more pages. Number each page.

Please include as part of your response:

- any submissions you make that the application is outside the Tribunal's jurisdiction;
- what allegations in the application you agree with;
- what allegations in the application you disagree with;
- any additional facts that you intend to rely on; and
- any defences that you intend to rely on.

4. What is your position in respect to each of the issues and material facts set out in the Commission application?

5. What are the material facts on which you intend to rely?

6. What is your response to the remedies sought by the Commission?

Mediation

7. Choosing mediation to resolve the application

Mediation is one of the ways the Tribunal tries to resolve disputes. It is a less formal process than a hearing. Mediation can only happen if both parties agree to it. An Tribunal Member will be assigned to mediate the application. The Member will meet with you to talk about your response. The Member will also meet with the Commission and try to work out a solution that both sides can accept. If mediation does not settle all the issues, a hearing will still take place and a different Member will be assigned to the case. Mediation is confidential.

Do you agree to try mediation? Yes
